Eun Kim 김은

She lives and works in New Jersey and has shown her work in the US, Switzerland, Belgium, China, Hong Kong and Korea. Her paintings are inspired by the famous words of Alexander Pope, "Hope springs eternal". The use of mysterious content such as flying fish expresses hope even though it seems impossible to achieve. Eun Kim received her BFA and MFA in Fine Arts from Hongik University in Seoul, Korea. She is the recipient of the 11th art for World Peace.

김은 작가는 뉴저지에서 활동하는 작가로서 미국과 스위스, 벨기에, 중국, 홍콩, 한국에서 전시를 가졌다. 그녀는 영국의 시인이자 비평가인 알렉산더 포프의 시 중 "사람들은 결코 희망을 버리지 않는다"라는 구절에서 영감을 얻었다고 한다. 하늘을 나는 물고기처럼 이루어 질 수 없을 것 같지만 결코 잃지 않으려는 희망 그리는 김은 작가는 홍익대학교 서양학과를 졸업해 동대학원에서 석사학위를 취득했으며 제 11회 Art for World Peace에서 수상한 경력이 있다.

What I want to express is hope. Sometimes life is not easy, yet optimism and light comes to us. The famous words of Alexander Pope: "hope springs eternal", resonates with me and my artwork. We dream of a better tomorrow. I paint because I dream.

The content of my artwork can have some mystery, as our imagination can be so. Color can express more than words, while gold has long served beauty. To juxtapose subjects with running washes of paint or sections of gold leaf, underscores how feelings and emotions color our perception. As an artist, I try to decode the delightful interactions of color, light, and subjects that together make up more than the sum of their parts.

We are a part of the Natural World and representatives of it make appearances in my artwork. They symbolize the somewhat limitless richness of our planet. To me, the concept circles around to our limitless hopeful spirit that provides energy and power. Hope is our true natural resource.
